✘ INVC, Delhi, As the FIFA World Cup is all set to start from 12 June, if you remember, in the last World Cup's final between Spain and Netherlands, who was the hero of the match? It was none other than Andres Iniesta, who scored the only goal in the extra time just 4 minutes before the end of the match. The same maverick, Andres Iniesta will be visiting Delhi after he's done with the 2014 World Cup in Brazil, to promote his wine Bodega Iniesta in India, according to what Lorenzo Enrique Medina, his company's export manager, said in his recent visit to Delhi to meet Indian partner Rajbir Singh that Iniesta is very keen to visit Delhi, Agra to see the Taj Mahal and some super stars of Hindi film. Rajbir Singh said, "During the shooting of the calendar of Andres in Barcelona with Balma girl Claudia, he was so interested to come to India but due to hectic La-Liga matches, he could not make it but now hopefully after World Cup 2014, he will have some time in August to visit and promote his wine 116 minute, this is most popular brand after his goal on 116 minute in the final " In India, many film stars are also huge football fans. When asked if he was inviting them to meet Andres, Rajbir said, "Yes I know, Shahrukh Khan, Ranbir Kapoor, John Abraham and even Dhoni is a big fan of football and I want to invite all of them for the gala dinner party though I don't have any direct connection but some how I will invite them for sure. Rajbir said He also plans to invite Baichung Bhutia and Sunil Chhetri after all they are our best football players, he said, "My fingers are crossed and hopefully Spain will win again this World Cup and if so happens, then Iniesta's visit to India will be extraordinary.
