New Delhi,

This month it's a galore of music and fashion at city's favorite lifestyle destination -DLF Place, Saket. To make the weekend even more fun and exciting, the mall hosted an extravaganza at its precincts on Saturday, 17th September, 2016; where International Zouk festival was celebrated in the form of flash mob, representing Brazilian Zouk and an incredible in-mall performance by music band- Delhi Indie Project. The International Zouk Festival which is celebrated every year across the world with an intention to unite people through dance; has been promoting a fast-growing social, partner dance form- Brazilian Zouk. This was the 5th year of the event's existence, a major milestone. The performance started at 5:30 pm, where the professional dance troupe performed a fun-filled and energetic flash mob, while dancing on some popular English tracks. The performance was a crowd puller as the audience present at the mall thoroughly enjoyed the spectacular show and also grooved to some great music along with the Zouk crew. To entertain the audiences with some melodious music, a Delhi based renowned band- Delhi Indie Project, performed at the mall. During the performance which started at 7 in the evening, the band created a soulful ambiance with some classic songs. Audience present tapped their feet to the popular tracks covered by the ba
