

Contents HOT : Handle With Care!

By : INVC Team Published On : 30 Mar, 2017 09:38 PM IST

INVC NEWS

Chandigarh,

Vikram Bhatt is anything but predictable. When he chooses to go on the web and unleash stories online, you better drop everything and stay tuned, you never know what you will miss. Given how totally scintillating his MAAYA was, it is a good chance his next won't be any subdued. So we asked the man himself what he has in store for us. "Something bolder, something a lot more risqué," he teased. Well, we have our sources too! So we have heard the next from the house of #VBOntTheWeb is a high profile murder mystery called TWISTED. Given their first offering was a huge success with over 10 million views, we can only guess the height the second will reach. Twisted features Namit Khanna and Asia's sexiest woman — Nia Sharma. If the buzz within the industry is to be believed, they say Nia's on-screen transformation into a sexy seductress will leave you gasping for breath! Launching today, at 6pm, the web-series is a tale of high-society intrigue, deception and betrayal. Speaking about it, Vikram Bhatt stated, "#VBOntTheWeb got conceptualized as Youtube has become this enormous engine with a plethora of diverse content that the world is consuming. And I want to create unique content across all genres that people can wake up to." Given his previous webseries Maaya shocked all by being India's first BDSM series, the curiosity around the upcoming web-series is gargantuan. When asked to speak a little about the series, Bhatt added to the intrigue by saying, "Ambition is the first step to success — the second step is action." Directed by Anupam Saroj, Vikram Bhatt's associate, Twisted is touted as a sure winner. Stay tuned to this tangle of emotions as #VBOntTheWeb spikes your adrenaline through the roof.

URL : <https://www.internationalnewsandviews.com/contents-hot-handle-with-care/>