INVC NEWS Mumbai, Canadian Singer Justin Bieber, who will be soon performing at the most awaited concert in India, has an avid interest in boxing and is a boxing contender himself. Bringing to the fore this facet of his personality, India’s only and renowned miniature painting artist, Suvigya Sharma unveiled a life-size portrait, he made for Bieber and presented to him today at the boxing arena at St. Regis in Lower Parel, Mumbai.

Suvigya Sharma is an Indian artist, painter, fashion designer, does miniature paintings, Tanjore paintings, fresco work and portraits. The art which he pursues is perishing and has a long history of over 2000 years attached to it. He's the third generation artist and has commissioned artworks for a majority of industrial & celebrity families in India and the world including most prominent names like Honourable Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, the Ambani Family, Mrs Rajshri Birla, Binanis, Singhanias, Burmans, Piramal family, Sachin Tendulkar, Priyanka Chopra, Rani Mukerji and Kangana Ranaut.

The artwork is a life-size Oil on Canvas Portrait done in a miniature detailed portrait genre of painting, which the artist is popular for. Suvigya said, “I am really happy the way this Portrait has turned out. Let me tell you, it is a portrait done in Monotones, a mix of black & white colour, the combination has truly made it hyperreal.”

“I am sure this artwork will be loved by all of Justin’s fans worldwide, it being a masterpiece in itself. Justin is really fond of boxing & this portrait is dedicated to his love for the sport”, added Suvigya.

Notably, in October 2016, Suvigya also gifted Sachin Tendulkar with a handmade memento -a custom-made gold-leaved and gold-embossed bat with a 24 carat gold handle at the opening of his show The Art of Royals.
