

Venugopal stressed on the need for improving the performance in the power transmission sector

By : INVC Team Published On : 23 Feb, 2011 12:24 AM IST

✘ INVC,, Delhi,, K.C.Venugopal, Minister of State for Power, has stressed on the need for improving the performance in the power transmission sector by minimizing the AT&C losses. During his meeting with Mr. Park Young-June, Vice Minister of Knowledge Economy, Republic of Korea who called on him here today , the Minister congratulated the Korean technocrats for achieving the minimized AT&C loss of 4%, and expressed interest in knowledge sharing between the two countries. The Korean Minister has expressed Korea's interest in extending technical support for improvement of energy efficiency systems in the country. He also expressed interest in participating in the Nuclear Power Development & augmenting non-conventional energy.

URL :

<https://www.internationalnewsandviews.com/venugopal-stressed-on-the-need-for-improving-the-performance-in-the-power-transmission-sector/>