New Delhi,

A glorious run of 120 days across 15 categories, the most awaited event in the domestic circuit came in Delhi. The theme of the event is Women and Youth Empowerment and its grand finale ceremony in which 100 participants from all across India is participating. The event is focussed on Empowering the Women and Youth with an objective of enhancing the gender equality, equity and prosperity of women. Empowering women and youth plays a crucial role in the development of the society. A largely ignored yet hugely important section of this society, BLUES intends to focus on how they can be empowered, so as to lead the lives of their choice. An empowered woman reduces the gender disparity and leads to equality of men and women in the society. H.E. Dr. Shaida Mohammad Abdali, Ambassador of Afghanistan to India and Dr. Sanjaya Baru, Secretary General FICCI, will graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. Prof Dr. P.S.N. Rao, Chairman of Delhi Urban Art Commission, Dr. P.V. Ravi Ph.D Chairman of Park College of Engineering and Technology, Dr. Amarendra Khatua Former Secretary, Ministry of External Affairs & Director General of ICCR, Madam Sanjana Jon, International fashion designer and social activist, Madam Varija Bajaj Entrepreneur, Chairperson Varija design studio will also join them.
