New Delhi , Bollywood's acclaimed actor Sharman Joshi has time and again proved his mettle with distinctive roles that he has portrayed in films. This time he is back to regale the movie enthusiasts and his fans in an all new avatar. The actor, who will play the role of an individual named Kashi who performs the last rites, spoke about his character when he visited BIG FM studio for promotions. The actor was accompanied by actress Aishwarya Devan, who plays the role of a journalist in the film. Sharman Joshi in a tête-à-tête with BIG MJ Anirudhat the studio, revealed how he prepared for his role in the upcoming suspense thriller film, the challenges for the same and many other interesting facts. The lead stars from the movie were all excited to address the queries from the audience. They shared details about the movie, their experience and how they enjoyed their time during shoots and travelling to the gorgeous locales. Speaking about the film, Sharman Joshi said, "It was a real pleasure to receive such a warm reception at 92.7 BIG FM today. My upcoming film 'Kaashi in Search of Ganga' is a thriller drama with an engaging script, something which I had not heard before. While reading the script itself I was sure of being a part of it." Speaking about her debut, Aishwarya Devan said, "It is my first time at 92.7 BIG FM and it is really heartening to receive such a warm welcome by the team. It is my first film and I must admit that I have been extremely lucky to have a co-star like Sharman. I have learned a lot from him and am extremely excited for the movie release now."
