Chandigarh,

Online applications have been invited by the Education Department from the eligible teachers of the state for the State Teacher Award 2021. Eligible teachers can apply online by July 31, 2021 by clicking on the link available on the department's website. The eligibility and conditions prescribed for State Teacher Award 2021 can be found in Annexure-1, the number of awards in Annexure-2 and the criteria prescribed for different categories of teachers in Annexure -3 have been made available on the departmental site. Under the scheme, 20 male and 20 female teachers in secondary education at the state level and 25 male and 25 female teachers under primary education will be honored with this award on the occasion of Teacher's Day.

An official spokesperson said that the selection of teachers for the State Level Teacher Award in Haryana would be done with more uniformity and transparency than before. The government has now abolished the district level committees to recommend the names of teachers. The recommendations of the names of teachers for these awards will now be done by the committees constituted by the Directorate of School Education at the headquarters level. Teachers will have to apply online to claim the award. To enroll themselves on the departmental link, the applicant teacher's password and OTP will be received on their registered mobile number only. The applicant teacher can upload his complete details on the link along with the pdf file of 3 MB. If the file is bigger than the prescribed size, then it will have to be uploaded to Google Drive. Teachers will be able to modify the file before uploading it. If there is any technical problem in the link or portal, then teachers can register their complaint on the email id of the department.
