Chandigarh,

The Governor of Haryana Sh. Bandaru Dattatreya has congratulated the people of the state as well as the educationists, parents, especially the youths, on the completion of one year of the National Education Policy-2020. Shri Dattatreya on Thursday joined the festive webinar organized on the completion of one year of National Education Policy-2020.

This webinar was addressed by the Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi. In the webinar, Vidya Pravesh, Indian Sign Language, Nishtha-2.0 and other programs were also launched. The Prime Minister also launched programs to create public awareness like Website L, Academic Bank of Credit and Multiple Entry Exit and National Digital Education Architecture.

Shri Dattatreya said that he is proud to be associated with the National Education Policy-2020 webinar. He said that a new era has started with the implementation of National Education Policy-2020 in the country. With the implementation of new Education Policy, youths in particular will get the right kind of environment to realize their dreams.

He expressed confidence that all the educational institutions of Haryana especially the universities are fully prepared to implement all the programs prepared under the new National Education Policy.
