New Delhi,

The Central Bureau of Investigation has arrested a private person on the allegations of demanding & accepting bribe of Rs. 15,000/- from the complainant, a public servant.

CBI has registered a case against a private person and unknown others on complaint. It was alleged that the said private person demanded undue advantage of Rs. 15,000/- in lieu of giving his deposition in favour of complainant, in the departmental enquiry in Railways which was instituted on the basis of complaint lodged by aforesaid private person.

15,000/- as bribe. Search was conducted at the residential premises of the accused. The role of other public and private persons is being looked into.

CBI laid a trap and caught the private person while demanding & accepting undue advantage of Rs.

The arrested accused is being produced today before the Special Judge, CBI Cases, Jaipur.
