✘ Manmohan Khanna, INVC, Chandigarh, Mauritius is a fascinating, world-in-one-island slice of paradise. Mauritius is surrounded by pristine white beaches and lush greenery in the central islands. One of the best vacation spots around the world, this island is blessed with ample of attractions and splendid natural beauty. Mauritius enjoys pleasant tropical climate with mild temperature the year round. This, along with the luxurious hotels and resorts, makes it a destination of unique magnetism. If you are looking for 'Luxurious Mauritius' then it doesn't leave a chance to surprise you with its diversified offerings. Enjoy your stay in the best of the villas in Mauritius & indulge in luxurious spa. You can relish the Indian delicacies at some of the restaurants and also Mauritius offers some of the world's best 18 holes golf course. The Oberoi Mauritius captures the spirit of the island in a resort that combines abundant natural beauty with refined luxury. It is like a second home to many renowned superstars of Hollywood. It has villas with private swimming pools and a luxury pavilion which offers beautiful panoramic views. The resort offers guided nature walks around the property which is situated in 20 acres of subtropical gardens and boasts a 600 meter beachfront. The Maradiva, on the other hand, is a tranquil hideaway for quixotic holidays and redefines opulence of private villas for all their guests. Each villa has its own plunge pool and a terrace perfect for al fresco dining, lounging or cooling. What makes the experience exotic is a 24 hour personal butler service. So feast like a king and enjoy best of the best services. The Paradise Cove is a cozy hotel with 67 rooms nestled in a tropical garden with bushes of oranges and red Ixoras, multicolored hibiscus and bougainvilleas, fragrant frangipani and flowery creepers along its pergolas. It reveals itself as a haven of peace in an Indian atmosphere subtly brightened up with Mauritian exoticism. Mauritius offers over a dozen extraordinary golf courses set on a stunning tropical island. The Le Touessrok has breathtaking lagoon island, championship golf course, ocean views and sweeps of sparkling sand. The hotel boasts an international standard 18 holes Golf Course. It offers cuisine from nine different countries. The hotel blends Moorish-inspired architecture to the thick patches of surrounding jungle. The resort distinguishes itself from the rest of the five-stars with its two offshore islands: the famous Île aux Cerfs and the totally exclusive, Robinson Crusoe-style hideaway, Îlot Mangénie. On the other hand, Trou aux Biches Resort & Spa has a nine-hole golf course spread across 2000 meters of sun-drenched, lush green ground promising a truly memorable golfing vacation for everyone. A luxury holiday is incomplete without the spa experience. In Mauritius you can expect some of the most plush spa therapies to rejuvenate and revitalize your senses. The Mandara spa at The Grand Mauritian is certainly one of them. The property boasts 193 guest rooms and suites, separated in 15 exquisite villas. The resort is bordered by the reef and ocean nature park on the coast. It is a spacious refuge of privacy for the guests. It offers a wide range of spa treatments incorporating the wisdom and traditions of ancient cultures along with the advanced science therapies and signature products. You can even immerse yourself in the thermal swimming pool or choose your treatment from the varied spa menu in Belle Mare Plage, one of the distinct spa properties on the island. You can discover the astonishing range of treatments to nurture body, mind and soul. At Spa de Constance, all the products are made from natural organic ingredients. Get a taste of the Aromas and Tropical Flowers bath, the hammam ritual, face treatments and massages and more at Cinq Mondes spa at Paradise Cove. The rituals are tailor-made to suit the individual needs. Mauritius offers the most resounding symphonies of flavor, the most delicious dishes and the tastiest bites. Acquapazza at The Four Season Mauritius, a beautiful and earthy eatery on the resort's lagoon, is known for its Italian cuisine with an Italian wine list numbering in hundreds. The open-air setting provides for the perfect dinner date with your partner. The highlights of the menu are Black Crusted Olive Lamb and elegantly prepared Culurgiones Ravioli. If you are craving for Indian cuisine then Safran at Le Touessrok is the perfect option for you. The restaurant is set around an open kitchen, with Tandoori ovens emanating gentle aromas of the Indian food.

Visit Le Saint Geran and savor the taste of classic Indian cuisine in Rasoi, headed by Michelin star chef, Vineet Bhatia. The restaurant is situated around the water edge amidst a magnificent natural setting creating a perfect milieu for you to enjoy the best of the gourmet delicacies with your beloved. The diversified menu offers Indian classics like Tandoori aloo chaat, chicken sheikh kebab along with the contemporary options like Spice-crusted foie gras, fennel seed naan and Spiced "gulkand" sandwich, baked saffron yoghurt. Trou aux Biches Resort & Spa is known for its six restaurants located on the beach front or adjacent to the beach front pools serving international cuisine. Four of them are located in the complex of L'Oasis where the shops and main pool can also be found. Specializing in international cuisine, L'Oasis and La Caravelle are open for all meals. The smaller specialty restaurants, namely Blue Ginger, Mahiya and Il Corallo welcome for an evening of fine dining whereas Le Deck, open for lunch and dinner focuses on light meals freshly prepared. With all the allurements, Mauritius is surely a place not to miss. It offers world class golf courses, exquisite villas; best fine dining, the most pampering services, and best spa therapies to die for.
