✘ M.M.Khanna, INVC, Chandigarh The 4 day Made in Pakistan Show, organised by Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), opened at Himachal Bhawan, Sector 28, here in Chandigarh on Wednesday and Attracted good crowds, especially women. The Show was formally inaugurated by Mr Anil Kumar, Home Secretary, UT Chandigarh. "In the present scenario of global slowdown, regional ties are the best answer. India and Pakistan need to look beyond politics, towards shared economic gains. Both countries should take advantage of similar cultures, eating & wearing habits and lifestyles etc. There is immense demand for each other's products in both countries. Fairs like Made in Pakistan and Made in India should be organised in both countries to showcase the best products and articles", said Mr Anil Kumar, Home Secretary, UT of Chandigarh while inaugurating the 4th edition of CII Made in Pakistan at Himachal Bhawan on Wednesday.
